PICS - The languages of the Sudan: a typological and areal crossroad

Partners: CNRS (LLACAN – UMR8135 & SEDYL - UMR) - France & University of Khartoum (Department of Linguistics) - Sudan

First Workshop in Khartoum

Date: 12/11/2019

Venue: University of Khartoum

09h00: opening session by the responsibles for the project (Nicolas Quint & Abeer Trefi), the presence of Maha Aldawi (director of the department of linguistics) and Michel Roy (director of the SCAN – French Embassy)

09h30-10h00: areal linguistics, an introduction (Nicolas Quint, LLACAN – CNRS)

10h00-10h30: Coffee break

10h30-11h00: Tagoi vowels and vowel harmony (Abeer Trefi, University of Khartoum)

11h30-12h00: Some areal features in Kordofanian (Nicolas Quint, LLACAN – CNRS)

12h00-12h30: The "Nubaization" of Nyimang: inherited features vs. areal traits in Ama and Male. (Claude Rilly, LLACAN – CNRS)

12h30-13h30: Lunch
13h30-14h00: Grammatical features of Tagom (Maha Aldawi, University of Khartoum)

14h00-14h30: Baggara Arabic: areal and historical glottometric issues (Stefano Manfredi, SEDYL – CNRS)

14h30-15h00: Negation coding in Kordofanian: Tagoi as an example (Suzan Alamin, University of Khartoum)

15h00-15h30: Coffee break

15h30-16h00: "Who is your name?" and "My car wants to be washed": Two potential areal features in Yulu, Sinyar, (and Arabic) (Pascal Boyeldieu, LLACAN – CNRS)

16h00-16h30: Pluractionality in Abu Jinuk (Waleed Alshareef, University of Khartoum)

16h30-17h00: discussion.