

VISITING FELLOWSHIPS

2014 - 2015

Applications are invited for the following Visiting Fellowships tenable at the Centre during the academic year 2014 - 15.

Visiting Fellowships

- These Visiting Fellowships are offered to support research in any area of the arts, humanities or social sciences that has relevance to the study of Islam or the Muslim world, particularly anthropology, economics, geography, history, international relations, law, literature, philosophy, politics, religion, and sociology.
- Applicants would normally be scholars or writers at the postdoctoral or equivalent level, but senior researchers are also eligible. An academic affiliation is not a necessary requirement. Each Visiting Fellow is provided a stipend of £4000, shared office accommodation and membership of the Common Room.

Imam Bukhari and Imam Tirmizi Research Fellowships

- These Visiting Research Fellowships, open to citizens of countries in Asia or Africa, are intended to encourage interaction among academics from different traditions of learning. Preference will be given to those studying classical Islamic sciences, although other areas in the humanities and social sciences will be considered.
- Each Visiting Research Fellow will be provided shared office accommodation, a stipend of £3000, and membership of the Common Room.

The stipends for both categories of fellowships are intended as a supplementary award and may be held in conjunction with other research grants, stipends, or sabbatical salaries. Visiting Fellows are expected to devote their time to research and writing and to participate in the Centre's academic activities. Fellowships may be held from 1 October 2014 for up to nine months (though shorter periods will be considered).
