

ROUND-TABLE WORKSHOP :

RE-OPENING OTTOMAN ARCHIVES : NEW PERSPECTIVES FOR JERUSALEM'S MODERN HISTORY

Thursday 22 January 2015, IFEA, Institut Français d'Etudes Anatoliennes - Istanbul

<http://www.ifea-istanbul.net>

9h : accueil café

- 9h30 : Vincent Lemire (Université Paris-Est/ Marne-La-Vallée, Dir. Of Open Jerusalem Project) : Opening remarks.
- 10h : Yasemin Avci (Pamukkale University) : « Documents about Jerusalem 'Citadinité' in the BOA : first description of the masses and possible working methods »
- 10h30 : coffee break
- 11h : Yann Potin (Archives Nationales, Paris) : « The BOA / Open-Jerusalem database : how to deal with such an amount of documents ? »
- 11h30 : Stéphane Ancel (Open Jerusalem Team) : « Data base and open Jerusalem Project : methodological aspect »
- 12h-13h : Discussion
- 13h-14h30 : Lunch Break
- 14h30 : Richard Wittmann (Orient-Institut, Istanbul) : « The Istanbul Memories : An interdisciplinary and international research project of the Orient-Institut Istanbul ».
- 15h : Falestin Naili (IFPO, Amman) : « The Minutes of Jerusalem Municipality (1892-1916): a forgotten source revealing the history of Jerusalem ».
- 15h30 coffee break
- 16h : Leyla Dakhli (CNRS, Centre Marc Bloch, Berlin) : « Imperial multilingualism and national translations ? The wording of Jerusalem Citadinité ».
- 16h30 : Abdul-Hameed Al Kayyali (IFPO, Amman) : « The Hebrew newspaper Ha-Zvi : a mirror of Jerusalem's public affairs at the turn of the century ».
- 17h-18h : discussion