Young Scholars’ Workshop

Interrogating Marginality: Education and the Urban

Sudhir Patwardhan: Painting, 2006. Image courtesy the artist

12-14 November 2018

National Institute of Advanced Studies (NIAS)
Indian Institute of Science Campus, Bengaluru
Monday, 12 November 2018

11.30-12.30  Registration

13:30-14:00  Welcome & Introduction: Shivali Tukdeo (NIAS) and Indra Sengupta (GHIL)

14:00-15:15  Chair: S. Srinivasa Rao
Anant Maringanti: Education within walls: Understanding changing contours of the learning city

15:45-17:00  Chair: Shivali Tukdeo
Amita Bhide: Schools, education and children at urban margins

17:30-19:00  Chair: Indra Sengupta
Keynote Lecture: Pauline J Lipman: Education and the urban crises: Coercive neoliberalism, the politics of disposability, and the struggle for the right to the city

Tuesday, 13 November 2018

09:00-11:00  Panel Discussion: Right to the City
S. Srinivasa Rao: Education as a site of difference in the city;
Lalitha Kamath and Mithun Som
Chair: Nandini Manjrekar

11:30-13:00  Student presentations I: Caste, class and imagining the city
Chair: Geetha B. Nambissan
Krupa Rajangam: Mapping ‘culture’ with schools: Place, imaginations of the ‘urban’ and social marginalization in Bangalore
Reva Yunus: Gender, class and the cultural politics of belonging: Interrogating urban lives, labours and classrooms
Amar Singh: Education and Social Identity among Youth Workers: An ethnographic study of Japanese and Indian Zones of Neemrana, Rajasthan

14:00-16:00  Student presentations II: Liminal spaces and the urban
Chair: Mariam Dossal
Sriti Ganguly: Socio-Spatial Segregation in Urban Context: Everyday lives and educational experiences in a Dalit neighbourhood in Delhi
Ankita Sharma: Educational Aspirations and School Choices among Disadvantaged Groups in an 'Urban Village’ in Delhi

Akash Bhattacharya: Pedagogies at the Margins: Understanding the inner city schools of Kolkata

Yamini Agarwal: Anti-Sikh Violence, Urban Marginalization and Education: A study of widows’ colony in Delhi

16:30-17:30 Student presentations III: Role of market in urban education
Chair: Sunandan K.N.

Rajshree Chanchal: Emerging Schooling Markets in an 'Urban Fringe’ in Uttar Pradesh: Educational aspirations and practices of low income families

Nilesh Gourkhede: An Exploration of Teachers in the Market Oriented Education Reforms: A case of recognized budget schools in peri-urban area of Hyderabad

17:30-18:45 Chair: S. Srinivasa Rao

Geetha B. Nambissan: The Changing Urban and Education in Delhi: Privilege and exclusion in a mega city

Wednesday, 14 November 2018

09:30-10:45 Chair: Indra Sengupta

Mariam Dossal: 'Schools of Industry': Transforming lives of the poor in nineteenth century Bombay

11:15-13:15 Student presentations IV: Changing urban landscapes and education
Chair: Nandini Manjrekar

Razak Khan: City of knowledge: Madrasa, education and urban histories in Rampur

Tripti Bassi: The Changing City and the Trajectory of an Institution: Ferozepur and the Sikh Kanya Mahavidyalaya

Simran Luthra: Global education and local context: A study of international schools in Pune

Debarati Bagchi: Education Hubs and the Changing Urban Landscape around Delhi

14:00-16:00 Final discussion and plans for publications and further conference in 2019/20