CALL FOR PAPERS
New Directions in Coal Mining History
University of Wolverhampton
9–10 September 2020

To mark the culmination of the ‘On Behalf of People: Work, Community and Class in the British Coal Industry, 1947–1994’ project funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council, we will be hosting a two-day conference exploring new perspectives on coal mining history.

We welcome fresh approaches to coal mining history from any country and time period. Subjects that are welcomed include:

- Political and social identities
- Industrial politics
- Deindustrialization
- Memory and heritage
- Changing landscapes
- Cultural representations of coal

Please submit an abstract of no more than 250 words, along with a one-page CV, by Friday 8 May 2020 to B.Curtis@wlv.ac.uk. Accepted papers will be confirmed by the end of June 2020. Some support will be made available for PhD students, community historians, and those who do not have access to funding. Please enquire to the above email address for further details.
