

Workshop Korean Archaeology and Cultural Heritage

Friday 17 March 2017, with an introductory conference on Tuesday 14 March

14 March 2017, 15h00-17h00

Introductory conference by Arnaud NANTA (CNRS - IAO): La recherche archéologique et la compilation de l'histoire menées par le Japon en Corée colonisée (1905-1938)

Venue: Salle Élisabeth Allès (681), Bât. Le France, 190-198 avenue de France, 75013 Paris

PROGRAMME 17 March 2017

14h00-17h30

Venue: Centre de recherches sur la Corée (CRC)

Maison de l'Asie (Grand salon) – 22 avenue du Président Wilson, 75116 Paris

14h00-14h30: Luis BOTELLA (University of Malaga)

Achieving Professional Credentials: South Korean Archaeology and University Degrees (1945-1979)

14h30-15h00: Linda GILAIZEAU (Mount Fuji World Heritage Center)

A Study of Korean and Japanese Interactions during Protohistory

15h00-15h30: Codruta SINTIONEAN (Babeş-Bolyai University)

Searching for the 'Original Form': The Practice of Reconstruction of Architectural Heritage in South Korea

15h30-16h00: Coffee break

16h00-16h30: Bryan SAUVADET (INALCO)

Religious Art in North Korea: The Missing Link in Korean Heritage Studies

16h30-17h00: Ariane PERRIN (UMR 8173)

Repatriating Korea's Lost Cultural Properties

17h00-17h30: Discussant: Arnaud NANTA (CNRS - IAO)

