

UrbaChina Newsletter

UrbaChina, a FP7 programme coordinated by CNRS-EHESS

2014-22 (May)

UrbaChina 4th International Conference in Chongqing

written by Miguel Elosua

The University of Chongqing offers UrbaChina a calligraphy that reads "the new silk road" (xin sichou zhi lu - 新丝绸之路), suggesting a new route for research cooperation between Europe and China through Chongqing. Calligraphy is an elevated art form in China, reflecting the importance attached to the word in this country.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/9906>

Special Feature on Internet Governance in China

edited by Jacqueline Nivard

Edited by Séverine Arsène, Ph.D, author of "Internet et politique en Chine" (Internet and politics in China) (Karthala, 2011), chief editor of China Perspectives.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/9892>

The resilience of vernacular heritage in Asian cities

edited by Jacqueline Nivard

Asia Research Institute, National University of Singapore.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/9871>

UrbaChina Newsletter

Poverty reduction and effects of pro-poor policies in rural China

edited by Monique Abud

Article by Li Shi (School of Economics and Business, Beijing Normal University). It describes "changes in poverty reduction in recent decades and the effects of income growth and inequality on poverty reduction in rural China."

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/9865>

Spatial inequality in Asia

edited by Monique Abud

Call for papers: Special Session at the 2015 AAG Annual Meeting: The Geography of Inequality in Asia.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/9836>

Chongqing the biggest city?

written by Sebastien Goulard

If Chongqing may not be the biggest Chinese city, it is still an important one.

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/9875>

UrbaChina Newsletter

Funded under the European Commission's Seventh Framework Programme, UrbaChina is a collaborative project managed by a consortium of 11 leading Chinese and European research institutions. UrbaChina analyses China's urbanisation trends for the next 40 years and define possible future scenarios with reference to concepts of sustainability.

Members:

- CNRS
- East China Normal University
- Development Research Centre
- University of Birmingham
- Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
- LSE
- Chinese Academy of Sciences
- ISIS
- University of Lisbon
- People's University
- Anhui academy of Environmental Science Research