

UrbaChinaNewsletter

UrbaChina, a FP7 programme coordinated by CNRS-EHESS

2015-03 (January)

A simple scan gives Beijing metro users access to a mini library
edited by Jacqueline Nivard

“M Subway•Library” is a public welfare program initiated by the Beijing MTR and the National Library to provide qualified book resources to the public through the platform of public transportation.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/11768>

UrbaChina final conference, Paris: research findings written by Sebastien Goulard

The UrbaChina final conference was held in Paris on January 15-16, at the Palais de Chaillot, and gathered all members of the Consortium.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/11775>

Street art in Beijing
edited by Jacqueline Nivard

Artist Robbbb pastes on demolition rubble.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/11743>

Arts, culture and the making of global cities
edited by Jacqueline Nivard

Arts, Culture and the Making of Global Cities examines such ambitions and projects undertaken in five major cities in Asia: Beijing, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Taipei and Singapore.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/11740>

<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/>
urbachina-edition@services.cnrs.fr

UrbaChinaNewsletter

Deliberating governance in Chinese urban communities
edited by Monique Abud

Article by Tang Beibei (ANU College of Asia and the Pacific).
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/11626>

Jeremy Wallace on "China's rush to urbanize"
edited by Monique Abud

Jeremy Wallace, author of Cities and stability (Oxford University Press), discusses 'why big cities pose a danger for authoritarian governments, what China has done to undercut those threats and whether the current push to create megacities might change all this'.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/11695>

Nested maps
edited by Sebastien Goulard

Article written by Ms. Marlène Leroux, Ph.D candidate at the Laboratory of Architecture and Urban Mobility, Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne.
<http://urbachina.hypotheses.org/11724>

UrbaChinaNewsletter

Funded under the European Commission's Seventh Framework Programme, UrbaChina is a collaborative project managed by a consortium of 11 leading Chinese and European research institutions. UrbaChina analyses China's urbanisation trends for the next 40 years and define possible future scenarios with reference to concepts of sustainability.

Members:

- CNRS
- East China Normal University
- Development Research Centre
- University of Birmingham
- Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
- LSE
- Chinese Academy of Sciences
- ISIS
- University of Lisbon
- People's University
- Anhui academy of Environmental Science Research